The Special Circumstance Appeal Form is for families who have experienced extenuating circumstances that may not be accurately reflected in the information provided on the 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). In order to provide you with financial aid based on your particular situation, we ask that you provide further explanation of your special circumstance on this form.

Section A:

Please check the box representing your family's situation, as listed below, and provide the requested documents in addition to a detailed statement describing your family's special circumstance. Incomplete forms or forms submitted without the required documentation will not be processed.

Loss or reduction of employment. Please provide:

- ✓ Termination letter or statement from employer explaining decrease in hours/wages.
- ✓ Most recent (or final) pay stub demonstrating this change along with a previous paystub showing prior income.
- ✓ If applicable, information on severance payments from employer.
- ✓ 2023 Federal Income Tax Return, including all schedules and W-2 Forms.

Business Losses. Please provide the requested documentation that best reflects your situation:

- ✓ Last six months of business bank account statements showing reduction of business income.
- ✓ General ledgers showing a reduction in business income.
- ✓ If applicable, quarterly tax filing documents (i.e., Form 941) showing staffing/payroll reduction.

One-time income (pension payment, inheritance, employer reimbursements). Please provide:

- ✓ Documentation of distributions and explanation of one-time payout.
- ✓ Receipt(s) showing where one-time payment was spent and/or explanation of why payment is not available for educational expenses.

Separation or Divorce. (Parent/student was married when FAFSA was filed). Please provide:

- ✓ Court documentation verifying legal separation or divorce.
- ✓ In the case of separation, please provide a MINIMUM of two (2) utility bills from each parent that clearly shows name and street address. Examples of acceptable utility bills would be cable/internet, electric, gas, garbage, water, and sewer.

Death of a parent or spouse.

- ✓ Copy of death certificate.
- ✓ Surviving spouse 2022 W-2 forms
- ✓ 2022 Federal Income Tax Return including all schedules
