Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

2025

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if: you are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate . . . . .

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 . . . . . $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here . . . . .	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income . . . . .	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here . . . . .	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . . . .	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2025 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2024 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2025. You had no federal income tax liability in 2024 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2024 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2025 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 17, 2026.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2025 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2025 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $30,000 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse; $22,500 if you're head of household; $15,000 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

King's College Guidelines for Employees for Interaction with Minors

(A child or minor is defined as a person under the age of eighteen. This includes students seventeen years of age and younger.)

As King's employees, it is our duty to model and maintain appropriate professional relationships with children and minors. Even though our employment at the College may not bring us into routine or direct contact with children, some contact may still occur as part of our work at King's. For example, many first-year students are minors by legal definition during their first year at King's. Residence life staff and coaches, for example, encounter students under the age of eighteen in locker rooms and living quarters. Faculty members who teach dual enrollment courses are in regular contact with minors. Numerous events sponsored by the College itself (Open Houses, Athletic and Fine Arts events, etc.), or outside groups often bring children to our campus.

The following guidelines provide basic information about interacting with minors up to and including children who are seventeen years of age. These guidelines apply both on and off campus while representing King's College. While some of the guidelines presented here might not pertain directly to your employment at the College, it is important to be aware of these guidelines so that together we can exercise our common responsibility to protect the safety and welfare of children. Maintaining appropriate professional boundaries can help to identify and prevent child abuse. King's College maintains separate policies that outline employee reporting responsibilities, as well as clearance, training and education requirements: "Protection of Children Policy" and "Clearance, Education, Mandatory Disclosure, and Training Requirements for King's College Employees, Students, Vendors and Volunteers." These guidelines are intended to provide an additional resource to promote the safety of minors and the development of healthy, professional and appropriate relationships.

Guidelines

- 1) When organizing a College activity involving children not enrolled at the College, the person in charge of the event should consult the College's Child Safety Protection Officer to ensure that appropriate levels of supervision are present.
- 2) Children not enrolled at the College must have parental permission for the child's participation in the activity.
- 3) When facilitating programs for children, the program supervisors must ensure that each child's whereabouts can be accounted for at all times and that activities are conducted in open areas with appropriate levels of supervision whenever possible.

- 4) With the exception of medical or other emergencies, employees should not be alone with a child, particularly in an isolated or private setting. Follow the “rule of three.” Always have at least two adults or one adult and two children present. This provides safety for the children in the event of an injury or other emergency and is most protective of the employee and the program. Professors and professional staff may meet privately in college offices with students enrolled at the College on matters related to their common work.
- 5) During sports camps and other organized activities involving young children, safety requires adult supervision in locker rooms, restrooms, and changing areas. When supervising showers or changing areas, or any circumstance in which a child may be dressing or undressing, two adult supervisors should be present nearby. Supervisors are always to respect the privacy of the child. In addition, supervisors should not undress in front of or shower with minors.
- 6) If the program involves overnight accommodations, never sleep in the same bed or share sleeping accommodations (e.g. hotel rooms, bedrooms, tents) with a child.
- 7) Whenever possible, require children to use the buddy system (each child is assigned to another child as a companion) when participating in an off-campus program. Children should not be permitted to leave the group by himself or herself.
- 8) Do not hit or strike a child in any manner. Do not use any form of physical discipline or verbally abuse a child. Regarding verbal abuse, for example, do not ridicule, demean, bully, threaten, or scream at a child.
- 9) Always respect a child’s physical boundaries and use good judgment about physical contact. Physical contact is not always necessary or appropriate in conveying concern. When physical contact seems appropriate the least intrusive form that communicates concern and support ought to be chosen. While it may seem perfectly natural, at times, to initiate an appropriate form of physical contact (e.g. placing your hand on the shoulder of a crying child), remember that not all children are comfortable with physical contact; children have the right to reject displays of affection. Hugs, initiated by the child, are permissible, but ought not to be prolonged. Respecting the child’s physical boundaries while remaining supportive is key.
- 10) Do not engage in any form of inappropriate contact, for example, holding a school-aged child on your lap for an extended period of time, or slapping a child on the buttocks. Do not engage in physical “play” (e.g. tickling or wrestling) with children.

- 11) Treat all children consistently and fairly and avoid displaying favoritism.
- 12) Use age-appropriate language. Do not curse and do not discuss sensitive personal matters, especially anything sexual in nature. If a child initiates a conversation that leads you to suspect child abuse, follow the guidelines in # 17.
- 13) Do not use alcohol or drugs or encourage the use of alcohol or other drugs with or in front of children.
- 14) Do not give gifts to children without the permission of the child's parents or guardians. If a child gives you a gift valued at $25 or more acknowledge receipt of the gift to the child's parent or guardian.
- 15) As a general rule, do not exchange any personal information such as phone numbers or e-mail addresses, and do not respond to or initiate any relationships with children outside of the program (e.g., do not "friend" children on Facebook, engage in other social media, exchange texts, or initiate any face-to-face meetings). Contacting students enrolled in one's courses or programs on matters related to the common work engaged is, of course, permissible, but it should be through official King's College email accounts. Any contact with minors through personal email, telephone, or social media must be with parental knowledge and permission.
- 16) If a child is initiating contact outside of the program setting, especially multiple times, inform your supervisor or department chairperson.
- 17) If you have reasonable cause to suspect child abuse, or a child discloses abuse to you, follow the protocols established in the College's "Protection of Children Policy." If a child is in immediate danger call 911. If the danger is not immediate contact the PA ChildLine hotline (800-932-0312) and the Executive Director of Campus Safety and Security.
- 18) Employees who have questions about appropriate boundaries should speak with their supervisors, department chairs, program director, the College's Child Safety Protection Officer, or the Executive Director of Safety and Security.

I, hereby, attest that I have read the attached guidelines, understand the contents of this document, and I will follow these guidelines in my interactions with children.
